Motion by John Tobia, seconded by Mike Perry, to accept the Supervisors report for April 2020. Carried

The Memorial Day Parades in the Town of North Collins are cancelled, however Erie County is holding, on Monday, May 25th at 9am, a ringing of bells in honor of our veterans. The “Ring Of Remembrance” will be followed by a moment of silence at 9:10am.

If anyone is in need of the Eden/North Collins Food Pantry, it is open every Wednesday from 10-5. Please, if you need it, use it. If you need help and cannot make it on Wednesday, please call the Town Clerk. We could possible set up a different day. The food pantry number is 374-5683.

The Town Clerk is working on FEMA reimbursement for the COVID -19.

Masks were given to the Town from Erie County for our residents. If you need a mask, please contact the Town Clerk.

There has been vandalism in the park to the new building. Supervisor Tobia stated that this is very upsetting that someone would vandalize our new building.

There will be a Blood Drive May 21st from 1-7 pm at the North Collins Recreation Building.

North Collins Summer Recreation has been cancelled due to COVID -19.

Supervisor John Tobia is extending the Town State of Emergency for 4 more weeks. Please follow the CDC guidelines.

EMS Week is coming up. The Supervisor thanked them for their service. Please be safe.

Congratulations to the Class of 2020.
